1260 ✓	"	1818 " " " " " " " " if it is a beautiful clean specimen.

There are four other pieces which I would like very much, but have not the money to spare for them at present. Would you be willing to bid them off and give me until Nov. 1, 1901, to settle for them? If so, I would not only be obliged but would be willing to give you good interest on your money. They are Nos. 1230, 1247, 1274, 1281. (The 1810 cent I would like very much.

Yours Respectfully,

A. J. Clark

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen: If No. 1257, 1817 Cent has a splendid, sharp even impression, as well as being beautiful in color, I wish to have you bid it off at as low figures as competition will admit.

Also, if No. 1285, 1840 Cent is the variety in which the figures are not connected, and if it is a nice clean specimen I would like it. Undoubtedly, you have received the list of other specimens, which I bid in, & asked you to bid off.

Yours truly,
A. J. Clark.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen: Yours of the 23d is received, and will say, I will very willingly give you 6 % interest on the amount you purchase for me. In looking over the catalogue once more, I notice 3 other pieces, which from the description, may be such as I desire to procure. If they are will you bid them off and include with the other four pieces, which I asked you to give me time on? They are lots 1221, 1272, and 1287. If the defect on edge of 1798 was caused by the die, I don't care so much about that, but if it has been done otherwise I would not care for the cent, unless it sells very cheap, say from $3 to $5. The other two, if they are in superb condition (even though they are uncirculated), and sell reasonable, I would like. Those will be all I would care for from this coming sale, outside the list of the other I have already sent to you.

I do not think it will be necessary to send me any of the specimens, which I have bid on for very likely I will find them quite satisfactory. If the 1¢ and 5¢ in lot 1148 are clean unfurb fixcar, I will bid .90 Numbers 1050 and 1053, I do not care so much about so will not bid higher, although I think myself they should bring more.

Yours truly,
A. J. Clark.

I would like to see 3 or 4 of your best 1848's, and one or two 1849's
The following must be beautiful, clean, sharp specimens and brilliant red at that, and in superb condition.

They are as follows.

1847. The variety not found in proof condition.

1850.

1851 Figure 5 does not touch curl. i.e. 5 is distant from curl.

1852 End of curl over 8.

Messrs. S. H. and H. C. Chapman.

Gentlemen: The coins which you bid for me have been received, and most of them are very satisfactory. The 1839 is not near as fine a specimen, as I expected it would be. It is very weak, and is not what I would call an uncirculated coin.

The 1802 and 1834 are of the class of cents, which I like, and I am satisfied with the prices. I was quite disappointed not to find the 1810 over 1809 cent among the lot.

Please find enclosed $5.00 for part payment on the bill and I will send $5.00 more in about 3 weeks.

Yours truly,
A. J. Clark

Dear sirs, - The gentleman for whose accommodation, I asked you to send some cents a short time ago, wishes to see the bright red 1844 which was in the lot. It was no. 10, marked at 04. less 10%. Will you return it in time so that it will be here on Tuesday Sep. 2d? Enclosed find stamps for postage. Will you keep on the lookout for such cents, as I asked you to, in the list sent to you, and notify me whenever you may get any in the condition which I desire.

Yours truly,
A. J. Clark.

How much do you charge for cataloguing coins? I know of a gentleman who has some U.S. Cents, which he thinks he will dispose off. What do could you allow me for getting them for you to catalogue?

Yours truly,
A. J. Clark.
